

CONTEST RULES

GLEASON RADIO GROUP

To collect any prize, a contestant must be eligible. If you or any member of your household has won anything in the past 30 days, you are not eligible to win. The only exception would be for a special contest for which the Gleason Radio Group would specifically announce that the 30 day wait period is not in effect. In the event a prize is awarded to an ineligible winner the prize is considered null and void, and will be awarded to an alternate eligible winner.

Prizes are non transferable or redeemable for cash. No substitutions will be made at the request of a winner, however the Gleason Radio Group holds the right to substitute a prize with similar value.

Employees of the Gleason Radio Group, other broadcast stations, their spouses, immediate families or anyone who lives in the same household is not eligible.

Prizes which are sent through the mail and returned to the Gleason Radio Group remain the property of the Gleason Radio Group, and may be awarded to a new eligible winner. The Gleason Radio Group is not responsible for lost or stolen tickets in the mail.

Contests that require participants and/or winners to collect items from the station, must do so within thirty days of being notified. Prizes that remain unclaimed, after the thirty day wait period, remain the property of the Gleason Radio Group, and may be awarded to a new eligible winner. In the event of a time sensitive contest, winners will be expected to claim their prize within the time period, that will be clearly stated.

In the event of a contest requiring participants to be a certain caller to win, and the Gleason Radio Group has insufficient amount of callers, the operator of the phone has the final decision on the winning caller.

Participants in Gleason Radio Group Contests, must correctly provided all required information, in order to be eligible. Participants who provide incorrect or false information will be disqualified from the contest.

Audio heard on our on-line stream is heard on a delay, from when broadcasted on our stations. Thus participants listening to our on-line stream have a disadvantage, over those who listen to contests on air.

By participation in a Gleason Radio Group Contests, listeners release the Gleason Radio Group from any and all liability in connection with the prize or their use. Any fee's associated with prize is the responsibility of the winner.

Contest participants also grant the Gleason Radio Group the right to broadcast or record your call for later use. Contest participants and winners also grant the Gleason Radio Group the right to use their name, voice, and picture for further on-air or on-line promotional purposes.

The Gleason Radio Group has the right to amend our contests rules at any time.

In all contests, the Gleason Radio Group holds the right to disqualify any participant who violates the contests rules in anyway. In all cases, the Gleason Radio Group's decision is final.
